Nine to Match Strides In Peter Pan Handicap

Jeep Heads Field for Belmont Stake Under 122-Pound Impost

his connections feel that he was unable to give a true account of himself in the mud that prevailed at Churchill Downs and a much better effort is anticipated, both in the Peter Pan and Saturday's richer fixture.

Trymenow has been in action once this year, after a light campaign in 1944. The stablemate of the disappointing Pavot appeared in a six-furlong dash here on June 7 and was an impressive winner over rather ordinary opposition. After being forced to race in the deep footing along the rail Al Snider took him to the outside entering the stretch and Trymenow finished with a powerful rush that carried him over the line nearly two lengths before Bill Hardey. He was going away at the end, giving the impression that he would like a route.

Alison Peters also won his last start here and also beat Bill Hardey, but by less than a length after leading from the start. Both Trymenow and Alison Peters met Bill Hardey at level weights, but the Jeffords colt must give Alison Peters 10 pounds tomorrow. If the latter can go a mile and a furlong, which is somewhat doubtful, he should be dangerous.

Another interesting light weight in this test is Bayern. This son of Blenheim II. is highly regarded by his connections. Bayern was apparently short in his only start here, in which he led for a half-mile then tired. First Stage finished his races well, though seldom well enough to win all the money. The same can be said of Wildlife. Chief Barker has speed but is inclined to sulk.

Sun Herod was a stakes winner in 1944 and triumphed at Delaware Park this year. The Sun Teddy colt is a "speed horse" and he and Alison Peters are expected to cut out the early pace.

The largest field of the current season has been entered for tomorrow's fifth race, no less than 31 maiden juvenile colts and geldings being slated to charge down four and a half furlongs of the Widener course.

There are nine different sets of couplings in this test, which promises to be a wild scramble. By way of contrast, the mile and a half nightcap for older horses has drawn only five.

Pot o' Luck Expected to Stay Here and Point for Classic

HOMEWOOD, Ill., June 18.—Calumet Farm's Pot o' Luck, second to Hoop Jr. in the Kentucky Derby, was on the Washington Park track this morning. Ben Jones said that unless there is a last minute change in the stable's plans, Pot o' Luck will pass up Saturday's Belmont Stakes and in that case his next major engagement will come in the Classic on July 14.

Twilight Tear, who bled in a workout this spring in Louisville, has not resumed training yet.

Fred Burton Opens Racing Secretary Offices at Washington Park Course

Ready for Registrations; Stables From All Parts of Country Head for Homewood

HOMEWOOD, Ill., June 18.—With the Lincoln Fields Jockey Club's meeting at Hawthorne nearing its end, officials of the Arlington Park Jockey Club were stepping up preparations for the opening of it's season at Washington Park a week from today. Fred A. Burton, new racing secretary of Arlington and Washington Parks arrived over the week-end and this morning opened his offices at the track to begin the business of registering the hundreds of thoroughbreds who will compete for the highest purses ever offered by the two associations.

Meanwhile the Illinois Racing Board will meet tomorrow when it is expected to approve the list of officials which was submitted some time ago.

While patrons at Washington Park will see many of the horses which have been racing in Chicago since the season began, hundreds from other points also will be on display. California is sending a number of notable stables and over the week-end many of the stronger establishments which participated in the Churchill Downs meeting arrived on the scene.

One of the most prominent stables to come in from Louisville was the Calumet Farm contingent headed by the Kentucky Derby runner-up Pot o' Luck who is to be pointed for his engagements in the Classic and the American Derby.

The East also is expected to contribute to Washington Park's thoroughbred colony and among those coming from the Atlantic Seaboard are the runners of J. Graham Brown who, however, will not be able to show his handicap star Seven Hearts. This sensation of last year's racing has been retired, temporarily at least.

There will be 64 days of racing during the coordinated Arlington-Washington Park meetings and in that time there will be presented five stakes worth $50,000 in added money, three worth $30,000, two worth $25,000, five worth $20,000, nine worth $15,000 and three worth $10,000. The daily minimum purse will be $2,000 and overnight features will be endowed with values of from $3,500 to $7,500.

The first stake on the program is the Clang Handicap which will be staged over six furlongs on Wednesday, June 27. Nominations for it close this Wednesday.
